Museum date for Olympic flame

THE Olympic torch will be coming to the Black Country Living Museum.

The Dudley attraction is among more than 70 West Midlands destinations to be visited by the torch relay next year on the way to London's Olympic Stadium.

At the museum the bearer will be treated to a ride on the historic tram No 34 as well as a trip on the Stour canal boat.

Far Forest, Callow Hill, Bewdley and Kidderminster will welcome the torch on May 24 before it arrives in the Black Country on June 30.

The UK tour, which starts in Land's End on May 19, finishes in London on July 27 in time for the Olympic opening ceremony.

Greece

The flame will arrive in the UK from Greece via BA flight on May 18.

The relay will also tour Shropshire, with the flame being carried past the Ironbridge Museum on May 30 and through Newport to Stafford.

Then, after visiting Northern Ireland, Wales and Scotland, it will return to England and tours back through Staffordshire to the Black Country on June 30.

The relay will pass through Willenhall before heading to Wolverhampton and then onto Dudley via the Black Country Living Museum.

The torch will then head to Oldbury, West Bromwich and Smethwick, with an overnight stop in Birmingham.

Black Country Living Museum chief executive Andrew Lovett said: "I feel so proud to welcome the torch to the Black Country Living Museum, on behalf of the region."

Singer targets big final

A TALENTED singer from Amblecote has hit all the right notes and beaten thousands of acts to reach the semi-finals of a national talent contest.

After wowing the judges last month Amy Southall is now one step away from performing at the O2 Arena in London to sing for the Open Mic UK title.

Amy, aged 20, who is currently studying physiotherapy at Cardiff University, will compete in the area-sing-off in Bedford on November 27.

The finals are being held next year as part of London's biggest indoor festival.

"Singing is a real passion for me, I have loved performing ever since I was little," she said. "This is a great opportunity.

"I love the buzz you get when you are on stage, the secret fight with your nerves and the sense of achievement when you get a round of applause."

"I have a wonderful family and group of friends who have been so supportive."

Amazing

"Just to perform at the final would be simply amazing."

Amy's first musical showcase was at the age of six when she performed in the Young Ones pantomime at Netheriton Arts Centre.

She has since gone on to sing at the Royal Drury Lane theatre with the West Midlands choir, entertain crowds at Himley Hall and Weston Park and feature on Beacon Radio.

She is also a regular fixture at Hanbury Hill Baptist Church, in Stourbridge.

A spokesperson for Open Mic UK said: "We are searching for an act that not only has the live ability to impress an audience, industry judges and A&R associates, but an act that has the potential to become a professional recording artist."

"Acts that have made it are just one step away from performing at the best live music venue in the country."

Visit the website www.openmicuk.co.uk to listen to Amy's performance.

LANTERN FIRE WRECKS CAR

A CAR in Wordsley was wrecked in a blaze which started when a Chinese lantern landed on it.

The Vauxhall Corsa was parked outside the home of owners Jackie Tetley and David Hickinbottom in Swanfield Road, Wordsley, when the stray lantern landed on the bonnet, causing a fire which spread to the car's interior.

The couple were alerted to the blaze by a neighbour and looked outside to see two-foot high flames.

It was the first of two fires suspected to have been caused by Chinese lanterns attended by firefighters in the Dudley borough on Sunday night.

Now the car's owners have called for the lanterns, which consist of a metal frame with a candle inside, to be banned.

Mother-of-one Miss Tetley said: "It's really frightening to think what could happen – there was a three-quarter full tank of petrol in there; what if we hadn't noticed the fire and it spread?"

PRETTY

"Something should be done. My car is probably written off so I will be out of pocket just because someone wanted to see a pretty flame go up in the sky."

Mr Hickinbottom, aged 47, said they had been watching TV when a neighbour knocked on their door to alert them. "I looked out the window and just saw flames, around two foot tall," he added. "I couldn't believe it. I got the hose and fought it the best I could while Jackie called the police and fire brigade."

Firefighters in Brierley Hill were called to the blaze at 8.30pm – and less than four hours later, a crew from the same station were at another fire suspected to have been caused by a stray lantern. Watch Commander Dave Foley said the second fire had taken hold of a conifer tree at 11.55pm on the Gibbons Road Industrial Estate.

"The estate is locked at night, with CCTV monitoring and no source of ignition that we could find," he said.

"We also found what looked like a metal frame from one of these kind of lanterns nearby. We can't prove that's what caused the fire but that's what we suspect. In my personal opinion, they are very dangerous things indeed."

Murder charge as man is killed in his own home

A MURDER probe is under way following the death of a 47-year-old man at his home in Dudley.

Kevin Jones was pronounced dead at the scene in Woodside and his 74-year-old mother Jean Jones taken to hospital with leg injuries following the incident. A man has appeared in court charged with murder.

William Spence, aged 38, of Fullwood Crescent, Dudley, is accused of murdering Mr Jones and assaulting his mother at the Buxton Road house at around 10.10pm on Saturday.

He appeared at Dudley Magistrates Court where he was remanded in custody to appear at Wolverhampton Crown Court later in the week.

Neighbours spoke of their shock over the tragedy as the house, just yards from The New Testament Church of God, remained cordoned off with forensic investigations continuing.

Fireworks

One resident, who did not wish to be named, said: "It is a real shock that something like this has happened around here. Usually it is such a quiet place."

"At first I thought it might have been something like kids messing about with fireworks, it being the bonfire weekend."

"But obviously it has turned out to be something far more serious."

Another neighbour said: "There has been a constant police presence at the house since all this took place."

"It is hard to believe something like this could happen in your own street."

Neighbours say Mrs Jones returned home briefly but is believed to be staying with friends.

Driver dies as car hits tree

A 22-YEAR-OLD man from Stourbridge died when the car he was driving hit a tree in Wordsley. The victim was named as Adam Johnson.

The tragedy happened just before midnight on Friday at Balmoral Road.

Paramedics were called and found that a blue Ford Escort had veered off the road and hit a tree, damaging a garden fence and wall.

West Midlands Ambulance Service said Mr Johnson was confirmed dead at the scene.

Horses perish in arson at stables

THREE young horses were killed and two seriously injured when arsonists used petrol to set a stables alight in Dudley.

Police and fire officers are investigating after gas detection equipment showed that petrol was used.

Two foals, aged six months and eight months, and a 14-month-old horse were trapped inside and killed while two other horses escaped, possibly by kicking down the stable doors.

The wreckage of the stables, in a field off Huntsmill Drive, Pensnett, was discovered on Sunday by its devastated owner.

Deliver

Owner June Thornton, aged 63, said she was "heartbroken" by the loss of the young horses, which she helped to deliver.

"The whole thing was burned to the ground," said Mrs Thornton, who lives nearby in Smithy Lane with her husband Paul, 66. "I'm heartbroken."

Six-month-old Prince Harry, born on the day of the Royal Wedding, had been locked in the stables with Diamond and 14-month-old Shadow the night before as heavy rain had been forecast.

Watch commander Brian Morris from Brierley Hill said the brigade's dog would be examining samples to try to identify if any other accelerants were used.

Witnesses can call West Midlands Police on 0345 113 5000.

Stab attack in the graveyard

A 28-YEAR-OLD man was stabbed repeatedly in a Halesowen graveyard.

He made his way to a flat yards from the cemetery in Stourbridge Road and was found there.

He is in a serious condition at hospital.

Halesowen Cemetery was cordoned off by police on Saturday after the victim was found at 8.30am.

John Birchill and his son Josh Dudley

By Tim Spiers

tim.spiers@expressandstar.co.uk

A FATHER whose 10-year-old boy nearly died in a car accident has criticised Walsall Primary Care Trust, claiming that it is halting funding for his son's painstaking rehabilitation.

Josh Dudley suffered multiple injuries when he was hit by a car while riding a bike in Wolescote, Stourbridge, in April.

The youngster was lifeless at the scene before being revived by his dad, John Birchill, and airlifted to Birmingham Children's Hospital, where he was on life support for eight days and in a coma for 10 weeks. To recover from his injuries – which included skull fractures, two broken thighs, perforated ear drums, a collapsed lung and brain damage – Josh was sent to privately-run The Children's Trust, in Tadworth, Surrey, for six months.

Mr Birchill said Walsall PCT agreed to cover the £134,000 cost of Josh's rehabilitation, which included full-time physical care and education, with a review taking place after eight weeks.

Health experts expected Josh to show little or no improvement in the next year, but the youngster defied all odds to make phenomenal progress.

Finish

Mr Birchill claims that despite medical staff in Tadworth saying Joshua still needs to finish his six-month stint to make a full recovery, Walsall PCT is reviewing funding for the final two months.

A spokeswoman for NHS Walsall said the review was scheduled for later this week and a decision would be made afterwards.

"NHS Walsall has always given a commitment to funding care based on clinical needs and in-built reviews at regular intervals is one way to ensure this," she added.

Mr Birchill is now trying to raise the £45,000 himself, so Josh, who can still only walk 20ft at a time and has short-term memory problems, can stay at Tadworth. He said that

Free parking plan to give festive boost

SHOPPERS will be able to park for free at council-run car parks in Stourbridge in the run up to Christmas. Charges will be suspended throughout Dudley borough on three Saturdays next month and on one evening to coincide with festive lights being switched on. Transport boss Councillor Patrick Harley said the move was a "gesture of goodwill".

It could end up costing Dudley Council £20,000 in lost revenue from parking charges – but extra takings during the festive season could bring the shortfall down to £7,000. The council proposes free Saturday car parking on December 10, 17 and 24 in Stourbridge, Dudley, Brierley Hill and Halesowen, plus smaller centres such as Sedgley and Kingswinford.

Event will honour brother who died

A CHARITY football tournament is being organised in memory of a Stourbridge policeman who died from leukaemia.

Lee Bates, of Furnace Close, Wombourne was an acting police sergeant at Stourbridge. He died suddenly nearly three years ago, aged 29, from acute leukaemia – a condition his family was unaware he had.

Now his brother Stuart, also of Furnace Close and a football development coach for Dudley Council, has set up the event in aid of the Midlands Air Ambulance.

Stuart Bates said: "Lee used to run the police club in Stourbridge and organised many charity events. The air ambulance was one of his main charities."

Teams are invited to the five-a-side tournament at Halesowen Power League, in Park Road, Cradley, on December 10. Players can range in age from 16 to 55 and registration costs £30 per team. Matches will kick off at 1pm. Registration will close on December 2.

Teenage chefs dish up a treat

TWO Stourbridge teenagers dished up a treat when they were chefs for the day at a Halesowen restaurant.

Shannon Ward and Olivia Parry, both aged 13, helped to prepare a meal in the busy kitchen.

The visit was organised by the Wishing Well charity based at Russells Hall Hospital in Dudley as both girls had spent time on the child'en's ward this year.

They were invited to the Harvester in Hagley Road where they were shown around the kitchen before getting stuck in to prepare a lamb main course and knickerbocker glory-type dessert.

Steve Ford, from Wishing Well, said: "They really enjoyed themselves. They said they wanted to become chefs before and their visit has confirmed this."

Five reports of fraud made to new hotline

FIVE REPORTS have been made to a new hotline and website set up by Dudley Council to catch workers suspected of stealing or misusing resources, or outside groups that falsely obtain contracts or grants.

The authority set up the new scheme last month so workers and members of the public can blow the whistle.

School to become academy

GOVERNORS have voted through plans to transform a Halesowen high school into an academy – despite mass opposition from teachers and parents.

The Earls High School will become an academy by the start of next year. Bosses say the decision will mean they have more control over school budgets.

Around 100 people turned out to protest against the plans last month, claiming there had not been a thorough public consultation and fearing the school would be less accountable.

Vice-principal Richard Jacobs said he believed the decision was "very positive" – and said the school would continue to run as it is currently. He said the move had been made after a dip in funding. "For us, the sole reason to become an academy is increased financial flexibility," he said.

A ballot of teaching staff at the Furnace Lane school was conducted by the National Union of Teachers and found nine in favour and 40 against.

Councillor David Blood, cabinet member for finance at the council, said: "It's one month since the launch of Dudley Council's fraud hotline and website and to date we have received five reports.

"The council remains committed to making sure that council money is used for the purposes for which it is intended, meeting the needs of local people. All reported incidents will be investigated thoroughly."

Under the scheme, residents and council staff can report any suspicion of fraud which will then be investigated.

Supplies

This includes fraudulent use of money, such as people getting cash to which they are not entitled, including payments for contracts, supplies or grants. It can also refer to the theft or misuse of council resources, such as stores, equipment, vehicles or buildings.

The council said setting up the service had incurred no costs as it involved adding pages to an existing website and installing an extra internal phone line.

The authority said the system was not set up in response to an increase in fraud but to ensure resources were used properly. Visit www.dudley.gov.uk/fraud or call 01384 814242.

Off the buses and on the feet for charity

Bus driver Dave Gerrard and Dudley Group of Hospitals fundraiser Karen Phillips celebrate £1,250 being raised through a sponsored walk by drivers

BUS DRIVERS have handed over £1,250 to charity after travelling from Dudley bus station to Stourbridge town centre – on foot.

The colleagues, joined by family and friends, traced the eight-mile 246 bus route to help raise money for the children's unit at Russells Hall Hospital, Dudley.

The event was organised by driver Dave Gerrard, aged 67, who is based at Pensnett depot and persuaded his National Express colleagues to get involved.

Mr Gerrard, who lives in Amblecote and drives on a number of routes around Dudley, gave a cheque to staff from the unit when they visited the garage. He said: "We're really pleased with how much we have raised and we are already planning to do it again next year."

They completed the walk in just over two hours. The money will help pay for overnight beds needed for parents to stay with their children when they are poorly. "It was tough going, but we all enjoyed it," said Mr Gerrard.

Council warning on 'spurious' claims

A WOMAN who tripped over a neighbour's bin bag and someone who slipped on a wet piece of litter are among hundreds of personal injury claims lodged with Dudley Council.

More than 830 people have lodged claims amounting to around £4 million since the start of 2008.

But 464 – more than half have been ruled "spurious" and thrown out. Council bosses revealed they have paid out just £500,000 over the claims.

They warned personal injury lawyers who launch no-win, no-fee claims that they would "rigorously defend" such cases, which included someone who fell over in the rain on a pedestrian crossing and tried to sue.

Councillor Tim Wright, cabinet member for legal services, said the authority would also consider claiming back costs if the claim was unfounded.

"We always undertake a full investigation," he said. "But we will not take money out of the taxpayer's pocket to fund these spurious claims."

Other claims included a roller skater knocked over by another skater at a leisure centre.

Leisure centre pools close for repairs

TWO pools at a popular leisure centre in Stourbridge are to shut for more than a month for repairs costing nearly half a million pounds.

The leisure pool, which features a wave machine and is used by families, and the 25-metre pool at Crystal Leisure Centre will close on November 21 for the £474,000 work. Both will remain shut until January 3 while air handling units are replaced.

The new units will replace the originals that have been in place since the centre opened in 1990 and will reduce running costs. Routine maintenance and repairs will also be carried out during the closure, timed for the pools' quietest periods.

Hospital Trust cuts public-voted posts

THE number of public-elected governors at the Dudley NHS Trust is being slashed. There will be eight fewer representatives who are voted for by patients at Dudley borough's three hospitals.

But the number of staff-elected governors has increased. The overall number of governors, which also includes staff and appointed members, will be reduced from 39 to 25.

Bosses at the Dudley Group NHS Foundation Trust say it will make the council of governors more efficient.

It will also save money by reducing administration costs.

The proposals for the council of governors, which oversees work at the hospital trust and represents the interests of patients, have been approved by Monitor, the independent foundation trust watchdog.

THE Black Country nail and chain-making trade and things people do not know about Dudley are among the subjects of a series of local history talks coming up at libraries in the area.

The latest round of local history talks in Dudley libraries will start on November 23.

John Billingham, from the borough's Museum and Art Gallery, will discuss old images of Worcestershire at Halesowen Library.

On November 25, at Stourbridge Library, Dr Malcolm Nixon will talk about the Black Country nail and chain-making trade.

And, on November 30, Dudley Library will host "Would you believe it?", a talk by Chris Smith on things people do not know about Dudley.

All the talks start at 2.30pm and cost £1 to library members, or £2 to non-members. Dudley councillor Adrian Turner urged people to attend.

The number of public-elected governors for the Trust will be reduced by eight to 13 which includes two each for Brierley Hill, Central Dudley, North Dudley, Stourbridge and Halesowen.

Smaller

One governor will represent patients in each of three wards, Rowley Regis and Tipton, South Staffordshire and Wyre Forest and the West Midlands.

There will also be a reduction in representatives appointed from associated organisations – but the number of staff-elected governors will rise from six to eight.

Governor Steve Walther said: "Other foundation trusts have smaller councils of governors and it works better for them."

"It makes them more manageable and means they run more efficiently," he added.

"The bigger organisations get, the more unruly they can be."

Century joy for Dora

Dora Nash, with a message from The Queen, celebrates her 100th birthday with daughter Jean Wesley

A FORMER HP Sauce factory worker with a "wicked sense of humour" has celebrated her 100th birthday.

Dory Ruby Nash, nee Chapman, born on November 1, 1911, is originally from Aston in Birmingham and now lives at the Chandos Lodge care home on Stourbridge Road, Hagley.

She left school aged 14 and has two daughters, Janet and Jean.

Vicky Bennett, activities coordinator at Chandos Lodge, said: "Dora still enjoys many activities – fitness and exercise, playing dominoes, singing and patio gardening. She also still has a wicked sense of humour!"

Precious moments of pure animal magic

THEY are the kind of photographs most people could never dream of taking.

A mouse caught in the act stealing bird food, baby blackbirds calling out for their mother and hedgehogs and a puppy eating alongside each other – all captured by professional snapper Graham Gough in his garden.

But Graham, from Kinver, said the wildlife in his pictures could be found in everyone's gardens and all it required to snap them was a little perseverance.

The former Express & Star photographer, who started his career aged just 15, had his extensive collection of work featured in a Himley Hall exhibition last year, and now at the age of 72 is still snapping away for the fun of it. "They say photographers never die; they just go out of focus," Graham said.

His wildlife shots were taken over the space of a few years and each has a story behind it.

Like the baby magpies who saw two of their siblings either captured and eaten before Graham rebuilt their nest and fed them for 24 hours.

Graham, who is married to Mary and has two daughters and four grandchildren, said everyone could find nature like this if they looked hard enough.

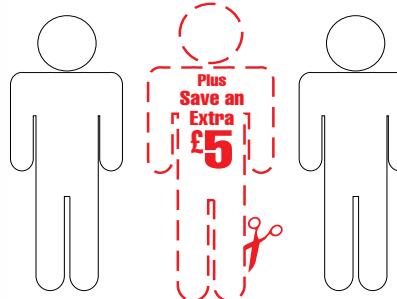

"It's just a case of keeping your eyes open," Graham added. "They're creatures of habit and you notice they do certain things at certain times."

"There is obviously lots of patience involved though – I photographed that robin 30 or 40 times before getting the right shot."

Some of Graham's work, in particular shots of the Dudley riots from 1962, is currently on display at Dudley Archives and in schools across the borough.

Gary Bate and Adrian Pearce with their mobility business

New businesses that are defying the slump

ENTERPRISING people in the Dudley borough are tapping into the heritage of hard graft by fighting back from recession to launch their own small businesses.

And they are helping others to find work along the way.

Examples include a young father-of-two from Dudley who, after finding himself unemployed, resolved to qualify as a mechanic and launch his own business.

He is now helping other students to start work – at first by freelancing for him and then setting up on their own. Meanwhile, two middle-aged men whose previous businesses were badly hit by recession have joined forces to start a shop in Lye – with the aim of developing a factory at the same premises.

The Black Country Chamber of Commerce estimates that more than 400 local businesses have started up in the area so far this year, including 170 launched with the help of the New Enterprise Allowance Programme.

Chamber vice-president Paul Bennett said: "Although the economy remains sluggish, the level of start-up activity is encouraging and the success of the New Enterprise Allowance programme locally sets the standard nationally."

Anthony Pearson, aged 22, of Merryfield Road, Russells Hall, Dudley, was desperate to find work to provide for his family, including children Lilly-May, aged two, and Scarlett, who is six months old.

Repair

After two years out of work, he enrolled at Stourbridge College and gained qualifications in vehicle servicing and repair before setting up as a mobile mechanic, under the name of Expert Motors, based in a shed at his home six months ago. "After investing in the tools to get the project up and running it struck me that other young people in a similar position could do with a helping hand," said Anthony.

"I advertised on the college campus and, among fellow students, my company has found several junior mechanics to become franchisees of Expert Motors.

"We provide the tools and I go along and supervise them as they carry out the services on vehicles of customers that they find for themselves – so they get practical experience with the cars and business experience too without any start-up costs."

Anthony and his business partner, operations manager Matthew Jones, now have three mechanics working with them, who are either fully trained or still students, guaranteeing each several hours a week.

Among them is Jay Harvey, aged 27, of New Farm Road, Stourbridge, who says: "I do about six hours a week with Anthony, who helps me to keep on top of things."

"I'm grateful for his help – without his knowledge I wouldn't have been able to set up."

"Now I'm thinking of going out on my own."

Expert Motors is now advertising to employ directly, a full-time mechanic.

At Lye, the new Keep Able-Bodied shop in Dudley Road offers care and mobility products, including therapeutic mattresses and beds, scooters and stair lifts.

Kinver men Gary Bate, aged 51, of Edge Hill, who was previously a qualified therapist, and Adrian Pearce, 52, of Sheep Walk Lane, who had been selling kitchens for 25 years, have launched the business.

And they plan to develop a factory behind the shop to make mattresses over the next year, with the hope of employing six people.

Gary said: "We were both working on a minimal basis but were struggling in this economic climate."

"So we decided to reinvent ourselves by joining forces to capitalise on our business experience."

"A lot of people are re-evaluating themselves now and adjusting to fight back from the hard times."

Win for traders in battle over parking bans

TRADERS in Halesowen have won their battle against controversial parking bans they claimed would wipe out their businesses.

A 694-name petition was submitted to Dudley Council after plans for the town were announced. One-way systems in Highfield Lane, Hill Bank Road and Brookwillow Road and yellow lines in Howley Grange Road caused an outcry among firms in the area.

But the plan for a one-way system in Brookwillow Road has now been rejected after 23 objections.

Restrictions in Cherry Tree Lane, Grange Crescent, Hayesock Road and Islington have also been scrapped.

Susan Shipley, who runs Run Roses and Ribbons in Howley Grange Road for five years, said: "I'm ecstatic. There would have been double yellow lines all around our business, so our customers would have had nowhere to park. We started to collect the petition but we didn't really expect the council to back down."

Victory

Ward councillor David Vickers said it was a victory for "people power".

He added: "These shops are the hub of the community."

Revised plans are going before Halesowen Area Committee and, if approved, to the full council.

Plans to make Hillbank Road one-way were overturned after a 93-name petition was collected. But parking restrictions will still be enforced in some roads, including double yellows in Meadowbank Road, the Cradley Forge, Maypole Fields, Colman Hill Avenue and Cavalier Drive, and the use of Furnace Coppice for access only.

For £1 a child, the group can experience a fun hands-on creative art and craft session with all the money collected going to Children in Need.

Roxana Payne, who runs the Creation Station in the West Midlands, said: "It's a great chance to give children the opportunity to have fun and get creative."

A really cool winner

Bethan Hyde, winner of the Barnett Hill Christmas badge competition. Inset, Bethan's winning penguin design

ARTY schoolgirl Bethan Hyde has won a garden centre's annual Santa badge design contest.

Bethan's penguin and icebergs design caught the eye of judges at Barnett Hill Garden Centre in Worcester Road, Cleint.

Now six-year-old Bethan is looking forward to meeting Santa in person when he arrives in his sleigh, pulled by two reindeer, on Saturday (November 12).

Bethan, "thrilled and excited to have won" will be the first person to meet Santa and will join him on his sleigh.

She also wins a prize to the value of £30 while her school, Heronswood Primary, gets a free Christmas tree.

Bethan's father, Paul, said: "She got the idea for the design when she was looking at the DVD case for Happy Feet. She drew it all on her own – which is quite amazing for her age." And Bethan's favourite thing about Christmas? "Mince pies and presents."

Saturday's event at the garden centre starts at 2.30pm.

Transformations

Suction is new solution

A CUTTING-EDGE development to help resolve the stability problems faced by thousands of denture wearers is being offered at a Dudley clinic.

Denturist Steven Burchell Dip CDT RCS(Eng), who heads the team at the Denture Clinic in North Street, says the invention has the potential to improve the life quality of patients who previously have experienced long-term problems with ill-fitting teeth.

Prosthetics are held in place by tiny valve-operated suction devices which are built into the dentures.

A clever diaphragms principle, triggered by the bite pressure on patients' gums, creates a 'sucking' vacuum between the soft-tissue mouth lining and the prosthetic.

Mr Burchell, whose clinic attracts patients from as far as Spain, the Isle of Skye and the Isle of Anglesey, adds: "The denture revolution is evolving at a pace. In recent times we have seen what I can only describe as strident steps forward with implant-retained dentures coming into mainstream dentistry, clever technology which allows excellent fitting outcomes and now the Ultra Suction product.

"Implant dentistry is not suitable for everyone, neither is it all patients' first preference.

"The beauty of this technology is that it offers excellent denture retainer qualities without the complex clinical procedures which are required for implant work.

'Toolbox'

"We have always endeavoured to be on the very cusp of clinical development and this is another tool in our commitment to always try to deliver results which are greater than patient expectations."

Historically, lower dentures can present stability problems as the jaw bone erodes with age. With traditional dentures this can cause lower teeth to move and create friction problems on gums.

Mr Burchell adds: "The device can be mounted on upper or lower palates and because of its efficiency allows us to consider a reduction in the size of the acrylic 'plate' which can result in improved speech and taste.

"The Ultra Suction kit increases the options in our clinical 'toolbox' and can provide affordable solutions to many patients who would not wish to pursue the stability route with implants.

"I am passionate about the transformations good prosthetics can achieve. You can regularly turn the clock back ten years on someone's face – without the pain of plastic surgery."

Typically, patients will be encouraged to contribute their views to treatment plans and generally be assigned more than three-and-a-half clinical hours in achieving the best possible outcome.

Betty is free from pain after having implants

A WOMAN who had suffered years of pain with two jaw conditions has finally found relief after undergoing dental implant surgery.

Betty had worn dentures for many years but developed neuralgia and her trigeminal nerve had become inflamed.

"I had terrible jaw pain and suffered pins and needles in the side of head and tongue. It's a terrible condition. I'd had an MRI scan and seen a specialist but was still without relief," she says.

Clinical dental technician Mr Burchell had made dentures for Betty seven years ago and she returned to his clinic to inquire about a new prescription because the lower denture had lost its stability.

"I had put up with the floating effect of my lower denture and needed to address the problem. My lower gum has receded so much my denture was pressing down on a nerve and causing me pain," she adds.

"Steven explained the benefits of implant-retained dentures and told me it would allow my bite to be opened some more. Since having the implants on my lower denture, I have experienced no more pain."

Mr Burchell said all dentures have a short life and Betty's denture problem was due to shrinkage of her gums – a naturally occurring aging process.

"We hoped for an improved outcome on her condition, but never dreamed that the final clinical result could be so rewarding with Betty being free from pain," he added.

Making the transformation and providing a cost-effective solution for upper and lower denture stability. The Ultra Suction prosthetics use a clever diaphragm system to help provide wearers with a greater dental security

Homes on Edwards pub site backed

A PLAN for new homes on the site of a pub named after one of Dudley's most famous sons has been approved.

The Duncan Edwards pub, between Priory Road and Maple Road in Dudley, was knocked down three years ago after falling into disrepair.

Residents and councillors called for the land to be brought back into use after it became a magnet for vandalism. Dudley Council's development control committee has now agreed with officers' recommendations and granted outline approval for 12 homes.

Landowners Clubshire Ltd already had permission for shops and parking spaces.

The new homes will be two-storey, four-bedroom houses. Planning contribution fees of more than £43,000 would need to be paid by the developer.

Duncan Edwards was born on the Priory estate and played for Manchester United and England. He died in the Munich air disaster in 1958.

Dancers step out in good cause

Get round the winter Table

STOURBRIDGE Round Table is already gearing up for 2012 by opening its doors to new members in the run-up to its busiest season.

The organisation is firing up an early recruitment drive to give locals a new way to spend the winter months.

Whether they are organising major firework displays, working with BBC Children in Need or simply arranging a big Christmas party, Round Tablers know how to brighten up those long dark days. Jason Thomson, vice-president of Round Table, said: "With children back at school, adults returning to work after the holidays, and many sports seasons drawing to a close, history shows that men typically look for new social activities during the winter months."

"As we've experienced a rather short summer this year, we're kicking off our recruitment drive early to combat the lower temperatures and shorter days scuppering the after work plans of many blokes. Round Table is all about providing a fun and relaxed environment where men from all walks of life can socialise."

Round Table offers a wide range of social and sporting activities, often on a week night, such as go-karting, abseiling, shooting and tractor racing. "We're welcoming anyone who's interested in joining to go along to their local Table and see what it's all about," added Mr Thomson. "The more, the merrier!"

Burial fees on rise in bid to save cash

BURIAL fees in the Black Country are increasing as councils battle to save costs and cemetery spaces become more limited.

But Dudley borough has the cheapest grave plots, despite a rise of £15 from £450 to £605 since 2007.

The most expensive place to have a grave dug in the region is in Walsall where prices have risen by £137. The cost of an adult burial is now £863 compared with £726 previously.

In Wolverhampton, people pay £800 to have an adult grave dug, compared with £710 in 2007/2008. The biggest rise was in Stafford, where costs soared by £290 from £464 to £754.

In Sandwell an adult grave costs £666 compared with £611 in 2007.

The rise in costs has been criticised by Councillor Ray Nock, leader of Sandwell's opposition Tory group. He said: "I am sure there are other avenues councils could explore when cost cutting."

Distress

However, councils have defended the increase, saying much of the money is being reinvested to improve cemeteries.

Sandwell's deputy leader Mahboob Hussain said: "We are very much aware of the distress that relatives go through. Burial costs have been kept as low as possible."

Wolverhampton City Council spokesman Tim Clark said the authority had increased some fees to help pay for work to extend Bushbury Cemetery. Only three of Wolverhampton's seven municipal cemeteries, Danescourt, Beacon Hill and Hall Green, have space for new graves.

Work to resurface car park

RESURFACING work at a Stourbridge car park is heralding the start of a major shopping revamp.

Work on the entry and exit ramps of Ryemarkeet multi-storey car park comes ahead of the demolition of the 458-space Bell Street multi-storey car park, due in the new year.

The Bell Street car park will be knocked down as part of the £50million project at the Crown Centre which will see a new Tesco supermarket built.

The Ryemarkeet multi-storey will be one of the alternative car parks motorists can use after Bell Street car park is closed.

Council bosses say the work is, where possible, being carried out during quiet shopping hours.

More time to play on Sundays

PLANS to remove time restrictions on the use of playing fields near a youth centre in Halesowen have been approved by councillors.

Six letters of objection and a petition signed by 24 residents had been sent to Dudley Council in opposition to the proposals.

But councillors said the use of the fields near Greenhill Youth Centre, in Long Lane, needed to be encouraged and dismissed their concerns.

Time limits said the fields could only formerly be used on a Sunday from 9.30am-1pm and 1.30-4.30pm. There is no restriction on the fields at any other time.

But ward councillor Karen Shakespeare had written to the planning committee asking whether the issue could be looked at again.

Residents had complained that cars were parking up and people using the fields for organised football matches between 1pm and 1.30pm which is not allowed.

But council planning officers said there was no evidence that this was causing a "loss of amenity" for residents.

Councillors instead agreed to follow officers' recommendations and remove the restrictions altogether.

College block now ready to take shape

A START is imminent on a new multi-million pound sixth form and higher education centre in the heart of Dudley.

Preparatory work has begun on the new base at the corner of Priory Road and Ednam Road. Contractors will be on site shortly. The announcement comes as the college's vocational centre in Tower Street starts to take shape.

The metal frame for the building can be seen while the historic facade of the former fire station, which is being redeveloped, has been retained.

Staff and students can follow the progress of the project via a webcam which has been set up at the construction site.

Dudley College principal Lowell Williams said: "Work is going fantastically well."

"Now we can see it being built we can see it will be a landmark building in Dudley."

The sixth form and higher education centre, called Dudley Sixth, will be built on land adjoining Grade II-listed Kudos House.

Status

College bosses had originally wanted to demolish the building but had to go back to the drawing board after it was awarded listed status.

Kudos House will now be altered so that it can be used by workers at the college.

The sixth form, which will offer A-level courses, will have teaching rooms, science and language labs.

It will also feature a resource study centre and student social space.

The two developments form part of a new £30million university-style campus layout for Dudley College.

He said: "Everyone has been so supportive and Castrol Taxis of Dudley have agreed to help transport me around pubs in the locality so that I can say a personal thank-you to all those who have donated the funds."

Janet Jones, head of fundraising at the hospice said: "We really appreciate all Alan's efforts."

Free dyslexia test

FREE dyslexia tests are offered at the New Elizabethan School in Hartlebury on November 19. Call 01299 250258 for details.

Young composers hoping to hear work performed

BUDDING young composers hope to get their work performed by professional musicians at a forthcoming concert.

Classical group The Korma Trio will run a workshop at King Edward VI Sixth Form College in Stourbridge on Friday (November 18).

The following day the trio will perform at St James's Church Wollaston, and are looking to include some of the students' work.

Tickets for the 7.30pm show are £7, with under-18s free, and are available on the night or from Music Matters in Market Street, Stourbridge.

The scheme has been organised by Local & Live, a not-for-profit group of classical music enthusiasts.

Revolo's managing director Nick Dent shows Shadow Secretary of State for Work and Pensions Liam Byrne and Dudley North MP Ian Austin around the plant

Emin lights up the museum

FANS of modern art can see a new piece by Tracey Emin at the Broadfield House Glass Museum in Kingswinford.

The piece, Trust Me, is a neon light installation on loan from the White Cube gallery in London.

It is part of the Light Fantastic exhibition featuring neon work by six artists and is on show at the museum until February 19.

Shadow minister in call for action

A SHORTAGE of skilled workers, rising energy bills and a tough trading climate are just some of the challenges facing the manufacturing industry in the West Midlands, says a shadow minister.

Liam Byrne, Shadow Secretary of State for Work and Pensions, visited Dudley-based bearings manufacturers Revolo to discuss what actions need to be taken to try to solve the issues.

Managing director Nick Dent said the firm plans to recruit two new apprentices every year in a bid to help plug the gaps that are left by retiring workers.

However he said the company, which currently employs 60 people and has worked on projects including Formula One cars and Channel Tunnel trains, was struggling to fill vacancies left by skilled workers.

One factory floor position was still open after six months.

"We have got an ageing workforce, and not enough skilled young people coming through to compensate," he said.

Turbines

"Most of our workers are in their mid-to-late-50s and will be retiring in a few years – that's a lot of skill to lose."

At Revolo's base in Blowers Green Road, Dudley, high-tech equipment is used to make bearings, used in everything from wind turbines to sewage plants.

Mr Byrne, who is the MP for Birmingham Hodge Hill, said it was crucial to tackle problems and revive the economy.

"Something like a National Insurance holiday for small firms would help get companies hiring – and if every company in the region hired just one person extra, that would make a huge dent in the unemployment figures," he said. "The rising cost of energy is also hitting businesses hard, as well as a dearth of skilled new workers."

Revolo, which saw its turnover increase from £4.7million last year to £5.3m this year, now hopes to see a five to six per cent increase again this year.

The Royal British Legion: The Royal British Legion stands shoulder to shoulder with all who serve. It is the nation's leading Armed Forces charity providing care and support to all members of the British Armed Forces past and present and their families. It is also the national Custodian of Remembrance and safeguards the Military Covenant between the nation and its Armed Forces. It is best known for the annual Poppy Appeal and its emblem, the red poppy. www.britishlegion.org.uk

Each year the nation expresses its unequivocal support for The Royal British Legion's charity work through the Poppy Appeal, emphasising the need to help the Afghan generation of the Armed Forces and their families - today and for the rest of their lives.

The annual Poppy Appeal is the Legion's major fundraising campaign and their aim this year is to surpass last year's total and raise £40 million. This will allow the Legion to continue the work that means so much to the thousands of serving and ex-Service people and their families, who approach the charity every year for help. They reached their target of £36 million for 2010.

The Legion helps people of all ages, providing financial, social and emotional help to all those who have been affected by conflict. Increasingly they see younger people coming to them for help. Beneficiaries range from children to widows, from single mothers to pensioners, in fact anyone who finds themselves in need of help. Some 9.5 million people are eligible to approach us for support.

The Poppy Appeal distributes around 45 million poppies, 100,000 wreaths and sprays and 750,000 Little Remembrance Crosses. These items are made at the Legion's Poppy Factory in Richmond, Surrey.

There are many ways to support The Poppy Appeal either individually or as a company. And now you can show your support digitally - by email, on your mobile and on Facebook.

Why smoothies are the wheel thing

YOUNGSTERS at a Stourbridge children's centre went bananas and used up a whole lot of energy as they pedalled away to make smoothies.

Among the highlights of a special day with a theme of energy efficiency at Action for Children's Stourbridge Centre in Forge Road was a "smoothie bike".

It uses pedal power to create the energy needed to make healthy, fruity drink, and it was a popular attraction.

Electricity

More than 130 people were at the day, aimed at showing families how they can use less electricity.

Volunteers from power company E.on were there to advise families about energy consumption, and there were goodie bags, with night lights and standby sockets to kick-start their energy efficiency.

Action for Children's Sarah Rutter said: "We had some positive feedback from families who were astounded to discover how much energy and money they were wasting."

Polling stations are now under review

RESIDENTS across the borough are invited to have their say as part of a review of polling stations in Dudley.

Every four years councils have to look at polling districts and stations. People are being asked for comments on the location and ease of access until November 18.

See the council's website at www.dudley.gov.uk

Tourism cash boost gets big welcome at living museum

BOSSES at the Black Country Living Museum have welcomed a £4.5million cash boost to help transform the area saying it will "put the Black Country on the tourism map".

The money has been granted by the European Regional Development Fund to kick-start the project for the Castle Hill district of Dudley.

The money will be used to create a joint access to the museum, Dudley Zoo, and Dudley Canal Trust from Tipton Road, and a new arrival centre, among other projects.

More than 200 tourism and construction jobs are expected to be created as a result of the project.

Director of development Carolyn Pugh said: "This is very welcome news for Dudley, the borough and the wider region, and the Black Country Living Museum is delighted to be a part of the project."

"We look forward to working with Dudley Council and the other attractions at Castle Hill to create a thriving, high-quality tourism offer which will further improve the visitor experience and put the Black Country firmly on the tourism map."

Visitors

The grant includes £1.2m towards work at Dudley Zoo, which will upgrade roads at the site, fund new signs and create a new medieval animal-based visitor experience at Dudley Castle, as well as improve the entrance.

It is hoped the project, part of a wider scheme across 200 hectares of land in the Castle Hill area, will pave the way for dozens of new businesses and turn the district into a tourism and leisure hub.

The foundation of the hub will be a arrival point and car park for visitors to the three attractions, and the new £6m Sandwell and Dudley archive building.

Plots for other leisure attractions will be created, with the council hoping to attract new businesses.

Slimmers cheerfully pile on the pounds

Slimming World leader Michaela Mucklow presents £300 to Mary Stevens Hospice's Janet Jones, with the weight loss group at Lutley Community Centre in Halesowen

SIMMERS from weight-loss groups in the Black Country have piled on the pounds with a charity ball raising cash for Mary Stevens Hospice.

A total of £300 was raised by members of Slimming World groups in Stourbridge and Halesowen at a Vegas-themed awards ball honouring winners in the Woman of the Year and Biggest Loser categories.

The money from the event, which featured raffles, silent auctions and donation bucket, was presented to the Stourbridge-based charity on November 1.

Slimming World leader Michaela Mucklow, who runs two groups, said the event at the Copthorne Hotel in Brierley Hill had been such a success they were now planning to hold a similar awards ceremony every year.

"Everyone was in high spirits and giving generously," she said. "We asked all the members which charity they would want the money to go to and Mary Stevens Hospice, being a local one, came out top. It was lovely handing out so many awards to people who have come along to group to turn their health around and lose weight."

ASTOURBRIDGE man killed in a head-on smash between two vans on a country lane near the town has been named. He was 55-year-old Robert James Hudson, of Lower High Street.

The tragedy happened just before 3.30pm on October 26 at the junction of Chester Road and Clanbrook Road, near the Fox Inn at Stourton.

Baebes bring Mediaeval Christmas to cathedral

THE UK's number one selling classical vocal group, Mediaeval Baebes, has announced a nine-date tour of England in December, which will include a show at Birmingham Cathedral on Tuesday, December 20.

This outing will continue the tradition of the Mediaeval Baebes' annual Christmas tour. As a festive season gift to fans, the singers will be releasing the first single from their forthcoming album The Huntress, Veni Veni Bella as a free download with accompanying video in December.

Originally formed in 1996, the Mediaeval Baebes line up has evolved over the years and currently consists of musical director Katharine Blake alongside Sutton Coldfield woman Esther Dee, Emily Alice Ovenden, Bev Lee Harling, Sarah Kayte Foster, Clare Edmondson and Tanya Jackson. These accomplished songwriters, multi-instrumentalists and vocalists create their unique sound by drawing inspiration from medieval texts with the use of both classical and medieval musical instruments.

See www.mediaevalbaebes.com for tickets, priced from £12.50 to £18.50.

All that remained were the piano reductions, or "short scores," which had been lodged for copyright purposes in the Library of Congress in Washington, DC.

Ear

RENNED conductor, arranger and film music expert John Wilson will be leading his orchestra to perform music from classic MGM musicals – music that he has saved from oblivion.

Wilson, who will be performing with his orchestra on November 28 at Birmingham Symphony Hall (call 0121 780 3333 or see www.thsh.co.uk), was given permission by Warner Bros – then rights holders to the MGM catalogue – to reconstruct the scores of such classic film musicals as The Wizard of Oz, Meet Me in St Louis and An American in Paris.

In 1969 the studio made the blinkered decision to destroy the scores to their legendary film musical catalogue because it was taking up too much space. They ordered its destruction and the whole lot was buried under a golf course – every MGM musical since the late 1920s was destroyed.

All that remained were the piano reductions, or "short scores," which had been lodged for copyright purposes in the Library of Congress in Washington, DC.

When Warner Bros granted Wilson permission to reconstruct the lost arrangements, it was to these short scores that he turned, using them as the basis for the Herculean undertaking of transcribing the original orchestrations by ear from the soundtrack recordings.

The resulting album, That's Entertainment: A Celebration of the MGM Film Musical was released to rave reviews and charted at 17 in the UK national album charts.

TEN years on from his Pop Idol triumph, Will Young is a multi-platinum selling singer and actor and has released his fifth studio album Echoes, including the hit Jealousy and new single Come On.

He will be in concert at Birmingham's O2 Academy on Sunday, November 20, with support from up-and-coming new band Lawson. See www.o2academybirmingham.co.uk.

Dreadzone

Other gigs to look out for include indie rockers The Pigeon Detectives at the O2 Academy 2 on Tuesday; quirky dub from Dreadzone at the Hare and Hounds (07531 723043) in Kings Heath on Thursday, November 17; and 2 Tone veterans The Beat and The Selecter urging folks to Twist and Crawl at Birmingham Town Hall (call 0121 780 3333) on November 18.

Folk singer Kate Rusby

Kate's festive folk gig

ONE of the brightest stars of the English contemporary folk scene, Kate Rusby, will be performing songs from her second album of Yorkshire-inspired songs and Christmas carols at Wolverhampton Civic Hall on Thursday, December 15.

She will be joined by her band and a brass quintet for her festive concert, drawing upon the new album While Mortals Sleep, interpreting traditional songs from her native county and performing self-penned material.

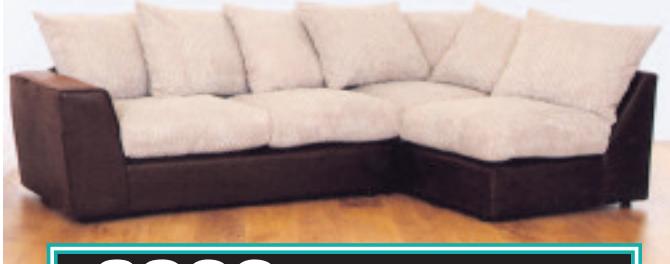

The new band will include Damien O'Kane on guitar and banjo, Duncan Lyall on double bass, Edmund Boyle guitar and bouzouki, and Julian Sutton on melodeon.

Tickets cost £20 (£12 under-16s). See www.wolvescivic.co.uk or call the box office on 0870 320 7000.

BBC1, 9pm

Oscar Wilde once said that the law was an ass, but then Oscar had a very one-track mind. As far as programme-makers are concerned, the law is a rich seam to be mined for dramatic gold, and they have done so brilliantly with this period drama, which is making a very welcome return. William Garrow is becoming one of TV's most loved legal eagles, and this series, charting his attempts to change the world through his work as a barrister, is a great addition to a re-tightened line-up.

In the opener, Garrow returns to the Bailey risking his reputation to defend James Hadfield, who is on trial for high treason for attempting to assassinate King George III.

Making Swift progress with this hot little hatch

SUZUKI'S swiftest Swift proved a big hit with youngish owners looking for an affordable (to buy and insure) warm hatch.

So little wonder the new Sport model, on sale in January, is more a step forward than a leap into the automotive unknown, with more of what's good and a bit less of what isn't.

In the good column are power and economy, both boosted by a gentle reworking of the existing engine (now 134bhp from its 1.6-litre petrol engine) and the addition of a sixth gear to make long motorway drags a bit less of a... drag.

There's also been a bit more space added to the length of the new Swift Sport for a slightly roomier interior (still only a four-seater, though).

Now the car also features cruise control and keyless entry – leave the key in your pocket and the vehicle still knows you're about.

Like the old car, metallic paint is standard at no extra cost (try telling that to the likes of Audi!).

Formula

So to the not so good: This welcome tinkering with an already successful formula has brought a price increase that's rather more than a gentle uplift.

The old Sport cost £12,995 (they're all sold, by the way), so the predicted £14,500 of the new model looks as though the Suzuki price setters knew they had an in-demand model on their hands and set the cost accordingly.

It's still not overpriced, though, when you consider the reworking you'll find in the little hatchback, designed in Japan, tested on some awkward Yorkshire roads as part of its European acclimatisation and built in neers have taken over, making it feel sporty on the road, with a lot of work to make both the suspension and steering feel sharper without turning the car into a racetrack refugee.

As with other sporty numbers from Japan (think Honda in particular) the Swift Sport's engine needs to be worked hard for maximum attack.

Indeed, change gear at what sounds the right time and you'll miss its vore.

This is a car that rewards effort from its driver, who won't mind swapping gears in a box that feels crisp and positive.

Tiger

Driven with some restraint it will even prove an economical little tiger, with the official fuel average consumption figure better by 10 per cent, at 44.1mpg.

Company car user choosers might also note the newcomer's emissions now slip below the critical 160g/km level.

Family car buyers will also like the five-star rating which all Swifts enjoy in the Euro NCAP tests.

It may be small but there's a proper bigger car feel to the whole machine, a sure sign that painstaking development has followed every change.

That augurs well for a long-term relationship with a car that will bring a smile to many a young man's face. And some older ones too.

The new Suzuki Swift Sport looks set to be a winner

ARMY OF FANS IS HEADING SOUTH

By Tim Spiers

tim.spiers@expressandstar.co.uk

MORE THAN 500 Stourbridge fans are expected to descend on Plymouth this Saturday when the Glassboys play one of the biggest games in their history.

The FA Cup first round draw has pitted Gary Hackett's men against League Two side Plymouth Argyle and, despite plying their trade in a division leagues lower than their opponents, Stourbridge will be looking to cause a big cup upset.

Eight full coaches will take supporters, the Stourbridge youth team and players families on the 200-mile trip to Plymouth's Home Park stadium, which has a capacity of 18,000.

Two years ago Stourbridge restricted League One outfit and near neighbours Walsall to a 1-0 win at the War Memorial Ground.

Hopes are high that they can go one better this time around.

Plymouth were in the Championship until as recently as May 2010 but after falling into dire financial straits have slipped down to League Two and are currently bottom.

Stourbridge director Andy Bullingham, a former Glassboys player, said everyone at the club was

Late equaliser dooms Stour to long trip north

A LATE Kendal equaliser gave Stourbridge the one thing they didn't want in FA Cup week – a long journey north for an FA Trophy replay.

That match was taking place on Tuesday night, after the Chronicle went to press.

Saturday's tie at Amblecote was incident-packed and occasionally fiery, producing six goals and a sending-off for each side.

Stourbridge almost scored straight from the kick-off with Sean Geddes and Ben Billingham combining to set up Aaron Drake for a shot that drifted past the far post.

Kendal responded with Kieran Walmsley striking a free-kick that Lewis Solly held safely. The hosts pressed again on 10 minutes and from a corner Drake crashed a rising shot past the bar.

Kevin Leadbetter slotted the ball home on 17 minutes to put the visitors ahead, Ciaran Donnelly picking up a loose ball and providing a measured pass.

But seven minutes later Stourbridge were level as Drake rolled a free-kick square to Drew Canavan who sent a 25-yard screamer beyond keeper Tom Newton.

But the Glassboys' hopes were dealt a blow three minutes later following a tangle on the ground between Drake and Kendal defender Marc Joseph that ended with Drake being shown a red card. The incident led to an altercation between players from both sides.

The fired-up hosts took the lead on 29 minutes with Ben Billingham finding the top corner with a rasping 25-yard free-kick.

But Kendal restored parity in the 36th minute when Alex Taylor netted after Lewis Solly had failed to defend a cross.

Stourbridge scored from the spot in the final minute of the half. Sean Geddes converting after Canavan had been upended by Newton.

Kendal lost Leadbetter, sent off for a foul on Billingham. But on 85 minutes Danny Wisdom went past two home players and crossed for Mark Jackson to net from close range.

I know Plymouth have been in administration but they're three divisions above us, so on paper they should win – but you never know," Mr Bullingham said.

"If we were absolutely on our full game and they weren't, then we'd have a chance. But everyone at the club is going down, from the canteen people to everyone else and the day is over for their hard work."

Tickets are still available, priced £10 for adults and £5 for children, while coach tickets cost £20. A commemorative scarf has been produced and will be on sale from the Glassboys Bar on Saturday before coaches set off from Old Wharf Road at 8.30am.

In reply Stourbridge were only able to muster a Jamie Hearn penalty that came from a rare spell of possession. The second half saw a massive turnaround – but it was not quite enough to take what would have been a famous victory.

Rookie Ritchings takes rider award

TEENAGER Darryl Ritchings has won the Dudley Heathens Rider of the Year award.

The 17-year-old was given a standing ovation by a 200-strong audience at the Cradley Heath Liberal Club on Friday.

He was handed the Ivor Hughes Memorial Trophy by former world champion Jan O Pedersen.

The timing was perfect for Ritchings as his mother Ann had undergone successful surgery in a London hospital on the day of the event.

He said: "Mum is fine, the operation went well and she has seen the picture and the video of the presentation which is great although it would have been nice if she could have been there to see it in person.

"I still can't believe I've won it and I just want to thank all the fans who voted for me.

"It's brilliant for me to be a part of such a special club and I want to be back with them next season."

Ritchings also won the Heathens Supporters Club award for the most bonus points while the Wayne Garrett Memorial award for most improved rider went to Ashley Morris who is currently racing in Australia.

Heathens chairman Nigel Pearson and manager Will Pottinger will meet the fans at a winter talk-in at the Liberal Club on Friday, November 25. Admission is £2.

• Adam Roynon would welcome a return to Dudley Heathens after his injury-ravaged 2011 campaign.

He said: "It's such a unique club. The injury was a massive setback and I could see how much it hurt the team, but hopefully 2012 will be my year. We are talking and I hope we can finalise something."

Six-shooter Edgerton lifts Stourbridge

Girls league

Stourbridge 12 Bridgnorth Spartans 0

STOURBRIDGE U15 dominated this Rochelle Memorial Cup tie with Louise Edgerton bagging six goals.

Emily Drewett got two with Ellen Addis, Maddison Phillips, Amy Zimuda and Alice Fish also on the scoresheet.

Stourbridge U12A suffered a frustrating day, dominating the match but unable to secure victory.

They fell behind to a fine strike but equalised quickly. Despite home pressure, the visitors held out.

Worcester Olympic 0
Stourbridge 4

Two goals apiece from Marcus Hall and Sam Cinnamond brought the U13A side victory.

Hall rounded off a flowing move involving Jacob Wedderburn and Alex Lowe to put Stourbridge one up at the break.

Cinnamond netted after Lowe's shot had been parried and then headed in a cross for his second. Another Lowe shot was saved but Hall put away the rebound for 4-0.

West Hagley 2
Stourbridge 1

Two goals in the last five minutes proved decisive as Stourbridge U13B suffered Open Cup defeat.

The visitors went ahead after 15 minutes. Ethan Shelley's pass flicked over the keeper by Alfie Bloomer. But Hagley equalised with five minutes remaining and with extra time looming snatched the winner.

Stourbridge 0
Worcester Olympic 1

The U14 side adopted a new formation to stem the flow of goals conceded in recent weeks.

They adapted well but found the visitors' 6ft 1in keeper in fine form and Worcester took the win with a good goal from a free-kick with two minutes left.

Stourbridge 1
Shrewsbury DC 1

An entertaining match finished with the U16 North side having to settle for a draw.

Stourbridge went ahead in the opening minutes, a good build-up rounded off by a fine Luke Patton finish. But minutes later Shrewsbury were level and while the home side put together some good football they could not find a second goal.

Nuneaton 3 Stourbridge 3

Stourbridge U18 battled back from three down to share the spoils.

Nuneaton were up at the break and added a third, but the visitors responded with two goals from Nathan Davies and one by Lewis Fearon.

Goals are shared as Old Hales strolls it

Finchfield 1

Old Halesonians 4

GOALS were shared between four players as Old Halesonians firsts hockey team went joint top of the MRHA ENER-G West Midlands Premier Division.

They opened the scoring when Ben Hughes fired the ball across the D to striker Tom Bulteel, who flicked it into the net.

The visitors doubled their lead when Paul Harrold pulled away from his marker and found Harry Hughes to score.

Josh Randhawa got the third after a Marc Herickx shot was saved and in the second half Hales notched their fourth from a penalty corner. The ball appeared to deflect off the body of Paul Woodall but the umpire saw no infringement.

Finchfield got a consolation goal from a penalty corner.

Old Halesonians 1

Worcester 3

It was a tale of penalty corners as the seconds went down to top of the table Worcester.

Hales started brightly but could not take advantage of the numerous penalty corners they won early in the game.

In contrast, Worcester converted two before the break and yet another penalty corner brought their third goal in the second half.

Hales rallied and Mark Rigby scored from a penalty corner right on the final whistle – his first goal in six years.

• Results: Stratford 3 Old Hales 3rd, Old Hales 4th, Old Wutkins 0, Sutton 5 Old Hales 5th, 2 Old Hales 2nd, 2 Barhams 1, Old Hales Badgers 4 Wednesday 1.
